MONTANA

Office of State Examiner

Helena, December 30, 1915.

Hon. S. V. Stewart,
Governor of Montana.

Sir:

Pursuant to the law, I submit herewith the twenty-first Annual Report of the State Examiner, and the First Annual Report of the Superintendent of Banks, for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1915.

A table showing the operation of the appropriations as well as the income and expense of the combined Departments of the State Examiner and the Superintendent of Banks for the fiscal year 1915 is attached hereto.

At the call of October 31, 1914, the last for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1914, there were 208 State Banks, and 22 Private Banks, with total Resources of $61,020,389.44, showing an increase for the year 1914 amounting to $4,932,017.81.

At the Call of November 10, 1915, the last for the year 1915, there were 214 State Banks and 21 Private Banks, with total Resources of $71,896,636.54, showing an increase for the year 1915 amounting to $10,876,247.10.

During the fiscal year 1915, there have been ten charters issued for State Banks, one Private Bank has converted to a State Bank, and three State Banks have converted to National Banks.

The Bank of Windham, Windham, Montana, was closed on December 9, 1914. This Bank was reorganized and reopened for business on March 4, 1915.

The Bridger State Bank, Bridger, Montana, was closed on January 30, 1915, and a Receiver appointed February 20, 1915.

The Farmers State Bank, Bridger, Montana, was closed on March 27, 1915, and a Receiver appointed May 8, 1915.

The Thomas Cruse Savings Bank and the Montana Trust and Savings Bank, both of Helena, were consolidated under the name of the Montana Trust and Savings Bank, January 26, 1915.

The Security State Bank, and the State Bank, both of Flaxville, Montana, consolidated under the name of the State Bank of Flaxville, February 27, 1915.

The new Bank Act passed by the last legislature has been very beneficial and with a few slight exceptions is endorsed by the bankers of the state. The most beneficial feature of the whole Act is the one preventing the organization of any more Private banks.

The discretion given the Superintendent of Banks in the matter of permitting State Banks to organize has also been of great benefit, as shown by the fact that but ten State Banks have been organized during the year, as against fifty-two during the previous year, and it is the earnest hope of the writer that the use of the discretion vested in him has been tempered with wisdom and justice.

In making out my comparative statements, I have shown the increase in the number of banks each year, and the increase of resources each year since 1904, that being the first year of which we have a complete record. The table shows that in that time there was an increase from 27 banks to 235 banks under State supervision, and an increase of 285 per cent in the resources of the banks, which is not only gratifying, but a wonderful showing, and redounds to the credit of the bankers of the State who are to be highly commended for the able manner in which they are handling the finances of the State.

The accounts of all of the State officials coming under the supervision of this Department have been examined and found correct, and the work above criticism.

All of the Counties of the State have been examined during the year 1915, with the exception of Teton and Toole Counties. The examination of these two counties will begin in the next few days.

Quite a number of the smaller towns have not been examined as yet, but all will be by the first of March, two months before their fiscal year expires.

All but one of the Building and Loan Associations have been examined, and found to be in a very creditable condition. Most of them are rather primitive, and do a small amount of business. For some reason this line of business does not seem to appeal to the average man in Montana.

You are conversant with the changes which have taken place in the personnel of this Department during the past year, and it gives me great pleasure to commend the very efficient work of all of the Deputies and employees of the Department.

Respectfully submitted,

H. S. MAGRAW,
State Examiner.
